

Graduate Workshop: European History across Boundaries Oxford, 13–15 March 2019

Programme

Organisers: Sarah Panter, Johannes Paulmann (IEG), and Lyndal Roper (Oxford)
Venue: Oxford University, Faculty of History, George Street, Room: Colin Matthew

Wednesday, 13 March 2019

- 14:00 Check in at Oriel College
14:45 Welcome Tea and Introduction

Section 1

- Chair: Sarah Panter (IEG)
- 15.30 Irene Vicente Martin (EUI)
Salvador da Bahia, a Bounded City with Blurred Walls: A Re-Examination of a Brazilian Town in Hispanic Monarchy Times
Discussants: Philipp Krauer, Sasha Rasmussen
- 16.15 Louis Morris (Oxford)
Borderlands and Fatherlands: 'Foreign' Soldierly in the Holy Roman Empire 1576–1618
Discussants: Nebiha Guiga, Riley Linebaugh
- 17.00 Annika Bärwald (Bremen)
Black Hamburg: Trafficked People of Color in an Early Modern European Port City
Discussants: Valentina Mann, Thom Loyd
- 18.30 Wine Reception

Thursday, 14 March 2019

Section 2

- Chair: Lyndal Roper (Oxford)
- 9.30 Sasha Rasmussen (Oxford)
Femininity in the Early Twentieth Century, Paris and St. Petersburg
Discussants: Jean-Philippe Stone, Nebiha Guiga

- 10:15 Lotte Houwink ten Cate (Columbia University)
The Dark Side of Intimacy. Familial Violence in Modern Europe, 1970–1997
Discussants: Gabriele Marcon, Annika Bärwald

Coffee Break

Section 3

- Chair: Johannes Paulmann (IEG)
- 11:30 Philipp Krauer (Zurich)
Money for Mercenaries – Relocating the Dutch Colonial Empire in Swiss Archives, 1848–1914
Discussants: Rachel Kupferman, Matthew Myers
- 12:15 Anastasiia Strakhova (Emory)
Unexpected Allies: Russian Officials’ Support of Jewish Emigration at the Time of Its Legal Ban, 1881-1914
Discussants: Marjan Wardaki, Jean-Philippe Stone

Lunch Break

Section 4

- Chair: N.N.
- 14:30 Riley Linebaugh (Giessen)
Stolen Archives: The Struggle between Kenya and Britain over the Records of Empire
Discussants: Annika Bärwald, Marjan Wardaki
- 15:15 Thom Loyd (Georgetown)
Black in the USSR: African Students, Soviet Empire, and the Global Politics of Education during the Cold War, 1956–1976
Discussants: Sasha Rasmussen, Louis Morris

Coffee Break

Section 5

- Chair: N.N.
- 16:30 Rachel Kupferman (Bar Ilan)
The Representation of Dutch Jews of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries in Visual Culture
Discussants: Irene Vicente Martin, Gabriele Marcon
- 17:15 Nebiha Guiga (Heidelberg/EHESS)
Being Wounded in Combat and Healed in Napoleonic Europe, 1805–1813
Discussants: Riley Linebaugh, Lotte Houwink ten Cate
- 19:00 Joint Dinner (self-payment, Al-Shami Restaurant, 25 Walton Cres)

Friday, 15 March 2019Section 6

Chair: N.N.

- 9:00 Valentina Mann (Cambridge)
Theories of the Mind and the Disciplining of Anthropology, c.1880–1912
Discussants: Lotte Houwink ten Cate, Rachel Kupferman
- 9:45 Marjan Wardaki (UCLA)
Knowledge-Seekers between Afghanistan and Germany: The Exchange and Production of Technical and Scientific Ideas, 1919–1945.
Discussants: Matthew Myers, Anastasiia Strakhova

*Coffee Break*Section 7

Chair: N.N.

- 11:00 Gabriele Marcon (EUI)
Labour Mobility and Innovation in Early Modern Europe. The Case of German-speaking Miners and Metalworkers in the Duchy of Florence
(1540s–1560s)
Discussants: Louis Morris, Valentina Mann
- 11:45 Jean-Philippe Stone (Oxford)
La Grève s'étend: Strikes and Discontent in Post-WW2 French Empire 1947– 48.
Discussants: Thom Loyd, Irene Vicente Martin
- 12:30 Matthew Myers (Oxford)
Left-wing Imaginaries and the Unmaking of the Working Class as Political Subject in Britain, France, and Italy during the long 1970s.
Discussants: Anastasiia Strakhova, Philipp Krauer

End of the workshop